

Discovering Hadrian's Wall Country by Bus

Hadrian's Wall Bus AD122 offers a convenient and relaxing seasonal service that runs daily from Friday 10th April to Sunday 1st November 2009. Using the bus and other linking bus and train services, you can travel between towns, villages and Roman sites along the Wall and throughout Hadrian's Wall Country from Bowness-on-Solway to Newcastle upon Tyne.

Great (and easy) Days Out

Some services have onboard guides so that you don't have to try to read a guidebook and look at the scenery at the same time. The bus interconnects with the Hadrian's Wall Country Line railway that runs along the Tyne Valley from Newcastle to Carlisle. Plus, on the ticket front, there are Single, Rover and combined tickets available; how's that for 'joined-up' thinking?

Your guide to the Guides

Bring your journey to life in a way Hadrian would have been proud. The times and dates for Guided services in 2009 are:

- Easter - Friday 10th to Monday 13th April
- Spring Bank Holiday - Monday 25th to Sunday 31st May
- July - Monday 20th to Friday 31st July
- August - Saturday 1st to Monday 31st August

Pedal Power by Bus or put your Best Foot Forward?

For cyclists and walkers, the bus is ideal for the full range of circular rides and walks. A limited number of cycles can be carried if booked in advance through the Hadrian's Wall Information Line on 01434 322 002.

Tickets and Fares 2009
